

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE UNITED STATES
FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF NORTH CAROLINA
STATESVILLE DIVISION
CRIMINAL NO. 5:00CR41-V

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

v.

OSCAR LEE TAYLOR,
Defendant.

ORDER

THIS MATTER is before the Court on the Defendant's "Motion For Temporary Release Sentence Inter[r]uption 18 U.S.C. § 3622(a)(4)(5)," filed May 5, 2008. (Document #182)

Defendant requests that the Court grant him a furlough "to reestablish family ties and for a job search interview." (Mot. at 1.) In his motion, Defendant represents that he was allotted a two-day furlough by the Bureau of Prisons. However, the materials attached in support are not current. In fact, the only documentation that could possibly be related to a furlough is dated September 7, 2007. In any event, Defendant needs to make his furlough request to the Warden of the federal facility in which he is incarcerated. See Legal Resource Guide To The Federal Bureau Of Prisons (2008) (citing 28 C.F.R. §570.32(a)). If Defendant's request is denied by the Warden, the appropriate mechanism for appeal of such a decision is via the Administrative Remedy Program within the Bureau of Prisons. Id.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED, that Defendant's motion is hereby DENIED.

Signed: May 16, 2008

Richard L. Voorhees
United States District Judge
